Program Summary

Teach For America-Rhode Island AmeriCorps members will teach for two years in high need low-income schools in five cities in Providence County. At the end of the first program year, the AmeriCorps members will be responsible for significantly improving educational outcomes for over 3,400 of RI's most underserved students in literacy and math. AmeriCorps members will leverage an additional 50 volunteers who will expand educational opportunities for our most disadvantaged students. This program will focus on the CNCS focus area of Education.
